

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Clayton Tucholke, who is retiring after 28 years of public service; and,

Whereas, South Dakota is the home to Clayton, and his community is richer because he has served as District 2 County Commissioner in Grant County from January 1, 1989, to January 2, 2017; and,

Whereas, Clayton has devoted his life as a public servant and is known for his knowledge of county government, fairness, common sense in governing, and his ability to resolve issues in an equitable manner; and,

Whereas, Clayton will retire as District 2 County Commissioner at the end of his term to spend more time with family, relaxing at the lake cabin, continuing his hunting and fishing adventures, and enjoying life in general; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 29, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join family, friends, and Grant County residents in wishing Clayton a happy retirement and thank him for his public service.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
